»shifted realities«

»shifted realities« is a double solo by choreographer toulia limnaios and her long-time dancer hironori sugata. the two are about the same age and bound by a deep mutual appreciation. now both are on the stage together, each in their own unique way.

»for example, the body of the dancer stretches out beyond the room, which is at the same time an inner and outer space for him« wrote foucault in 1966. according to the philosopher, it is only the reflection of the human being that makes him understand his whole form through the idea of himself. the double solo pursues this idea of parallel displacement. we do not stand on our own, but affect each other. each one influences the life of the other and a bit the world too, with his deeds, his energy, his impact...

two dancers in their own room, parallel to each other, simultaneously and thus not isolated, not in sync, but in mutual influence. – an exceedance of space and time, which allows autonomy as well as transformation. the space in which we live is not a vacuum, but is always connected with roots, stories, and the life of another. with the double solo she exploits further the potential of the individual, full of opposing references and indications. according to lucretius, “things create their own visibility by constantly sending thin layers of their outer shell into space, leaving corresponding imprints on our retina.

»the premiere of »shifted realities« was a real success! ... it seems that each of the two protagonists is telling it's own story. limnaios sings a greek song, tells her story as woman – with heels – and as dancer – with ballet shoes – while sugata, through small and elegant gestures and short and fast steps, takes us into his world, getting closer to his distant culture. in a compelling scheme, in which the two protagonists enter and leave the central space without ever meeting, these two monologues seem to become a dialogue. ... »shifted realities« exceeds expectations. the show is intense and well built. the dance is beautiful, the music, signed by ralf r. ollertz, is captivating and the two performers are very good. the several minutes of applause were well deserved. a personal commendation to toula limnaios who despite her great career as a choreographer is not afraid to get involved and risk again. «

(nicola campanelli, campadanza)

»whether performing separate choreographies entirely or responding to one another, limnaios and sugata possess an impressive synergy. their exploration of mutual influence is particularly powerful in limnaios' striking 'double solo' with herself – a sequence in which she wears a boot on one foot and a ballet shoe on the other, thus dividing her body into two different physical capabilities. ... numerous episodes fragment the performance and break the spell created by limnaios' formidable stage presence and emotional energy. ... what they do best: highly emotive choreographies. and that in itself is an enviable skill.«

»choreographer toula limnaios is berlin's specialist for a kind of magical realism. with her dance she wants to touch the audience above all, she once said. and hironori sugata, a long-time member of her company, always one of the most striking, a dancer for the special moments, a stranger, a will-o'-the-wisp, always present and absent at the same time, with an impenetrable expression. two enormously present artists dance solo side by side and yet form a duo. without physical contact. they share the same stage space, but each move in their own spaces and worlds - alone and yet united, far from each other and yet together - that is the paradox of this choreography.

the stage space also reflects this approach, it is a space that defines inside and outside. here, too, we find the theme of the choreography - separate worlds that belong to each other, that penetrate each other. a theme that is also reflected in the music by ralf ollertz. he has once again mixed a multi-layered sound ... always corresponding to the scenes, stirring or calming, comical or depressing. a dance that looks like unhappiness and dislocation ... feelings, memories, longings, fears. fractures run through the bodies and the dance that seeps back into your soul, beautiful and disturbing, soft and virtuosic and cruel and hard. this is once again an irritating and stirring evening of mesmerizing imagery...past, present and future flow into each other here.«

press reviews

»nothing that is not an excerpt of the heart, finds its expression in the work of toula limnaios, whereby the originality of this artist, a perfectionist of excesses, may lie therein. her excesses focus on mankind, the mysteries of his origins, the fire of his future. «
(saison de la danse, jean-marie gourreau)

»one of the most renowned choreographers of the european dance scene has created a ›tosca‹ a lasting and impressive piece of the contemporary dance. the spectators were excited and touched. the magnificent final tableau swept the audience off their feet into ecstatic rounds of applause. «
(frankfurter allgemeine zeitung)

»limnaios, one of the most striking figures in the contemporary dance for years, remains at the heights of her artistry«
(neuer zürcher zeitung)

»the spectators get to see somnambulistic images, poetically sensitive and intimate impressions in which real and surreal interweave. the word is about toula limnaios, a choreographer born in athens who has made berlin her home since 1997. the pieces she created with her company make people drift-away... for the images are really magical. the experts know that toula limnaios with her choreographies takes a special place in the vast dance scene in germany, an exceptional place. what she turns into dance is seen nowhere and she herself follows no trends. «
(rbb-kulturradio)

»the cie. toula limnaios creates dance that penetrates the soul... visually stunning and intense, atmospheric journeys into the abysses and posterity. toula limnaios managed to find a very unique power of expression in her pieces. the choreographer's source of inspiration are often master works, world literature, century-scores. she overwrites the classics with her own aesthetics, her own vocabulary of the movement and creates psychologically well-tared contemporary pieces. the company is admirably diligent, and its theatre is one of the most popular addresses for contemporary dance. «
(tagesspiegel)

»the company presents an unusually successful story: here, almost every show is sold out, the cie. toula limnaios managed to gain its own audience, not necessarily with an affinity for dance, that follows the artists from a production to production filled with trust and enthusiasm. «
(goethe-institute)

»the auditorium is packed. the first couple begins, the second joins in a way that takes your breath away. responsible for this frenzy of feelings and images are toula limnaios und ralf ollertz. he creates the acoustic visual realms that she causes to explode on stage with help of her dance ensemble. 39 productions in 19 years, moreover numerous revivals and world tours demonstrate their unbelievable symbiosis and productivity. making her one of the most important choreographers for contemporary dance today.

choreographer toula limnaios is one of those who, together with composer ralf r. ollertz, ensure that this art form of dance continues to retain its unmitigated vitality. for almost 20 years now, toula limnaios has headed her own company, which bears her name. and with her small, but excellent, international ensemble, she brings contemporary dance onto the stage – in berlin, where the ensemble is based and across the world.

those, who have the privilege of seeing the cie. toula limnaios dance, experience a celebration of emotion. the intensity of the movements and the dancers' feelings enthrall the viewer. the audience senses the physicality, becomes part of the dance. over and over again, in every single performance. «
(zdf aspekte, stefanie heidbrink)

»toula limnaios is known to reframe classical works of art and literature into sensational dance pieces with a strong focus on human connections. in ›tempus fugit‹, from intricate floor-work to flying across the stage, the agile bodies of the dancers were well-adapted to limnaios' highly charged movement vocabulary. «
