with »jeux«, cie. toula limnaios embarks on a poetic reflection on innocence and forgetting, on the concept of time, and on childhood. inspired by philosophical ideas and impulses ranging from plato and nietzsche to bergson, the new production unfolds in a series of »tableaux vivants«, a »narrated time« in which images intertwine, merge, and dissolve.

the performers immerse themselves in a bewildering puzzle, a game that carries them into fluid, formless states.

is life an endless cycle? does not every moment also hold the possibility of a new beginning? or is life a moving image of motionless eternity—a perception of time that is merely a reflection of an eternal order? how do we perceive time? what is timeless? and what does »duration« mean in the face of a constantly changing world and the finiteness of human existence? could there be an invisible continuity in the overlapping of past, present, and future, even if change seems to be the only constant?

time passes, but it also endures: a paradox ...

amid this thicket of thoughts and questions, »jeux« becomes a playful experiment—an attempt to glimpse behind the constructions and deconstructions of human existence, to question the asynchronous within the synchronous.

and it is a plea for meaningful creativity, for the imaginative, the playful, and the positive potential of humankind—to not only bear the urgency of life and the pressures of everyday existence but also to transform the world ... and it all begins in play.

press reviews

»nothing that is not an excerpt of the heart, finds its expression in the work of toula limnaios, whereby the originality of this artist, a perfectionist of excesses, may lie therein. her excesses focus on mankind, the mysteries of his origins, the fire of his future. «
(saison de la danse, jean-marie gourreau)

»one of the most renowned choreographers of the european dance scene has created a ›tosca‹ a lasting and impressive piece of the contemporary dance. the spectators were excited and touched. the magnificent final tableau swept the audience off their feet into ecstatic rounds of applause. «
(frankfurter allgemeine zeitung)

»limnaios, one of the most striking figures in the contemporary dance for years, remains at the heights of her artistry«
(neuer zürcher zeitung)

»the spectators get to see somnambulistic images, poetically sensitive and intimate impressions in which real and surreal interweave. the word is about toula limnaios, a choreographer born in athens who has made berlin her home since 1997. the pieces she created with her company make people drift-away... for the images are really magical. the experts know that toula limnaios with her choreographies takes a special place in the vast dance scene in germany, an exceptional place. what she turns into dance is seen nowhere and she herself follows no trends. «
(rbb-kulturradio)

»the cie. toula limnaios creates dance that penetrates the soul... visually stunning and intense, atmospheric journeys into the abysses and posterity. toula limnaios managed to find a very unique power of expression in her pieces. the choreographer's source of inspiration are often master works, world literature, century-scores. she overwrites the classics with her own aesthetics, her own vocabulary of the movement and creates psychologically well-tared contemporary pieces. the company is admirably diligent, and its theatre is one of the most popular addresses for contemporary dance. «
(tagesspiegel)

»the company presents an unusually successful story: here, almost every show is sold out, the cie. toula limnaios managed to gain its own audience, not necessarily with an affinity for dance, that follows the artists from a production to production filled with trust and enthusiasm. «
(goethe-institute)

»the auditorium is packed. the first couple begins, the second joins in a way that takes your breath away. responsible for this frenzy of feelings and images are toula limnaios und ralf ollertz. he creates the acoustic visual realms that she causes to explode on stage with help of her dance ensemble. 39 productions in 19 years, moreover numerous revivals and world tours demonstrate their unbelievable symbiosis and productivity. making her one of the most important choreographers for contemporary dance today.

choreographer toula limnaios is one of those who, together with composer ralf r. ollertz, ensure that this art form of dance continues to retain its unmitigated vitality. for almost 20 years now, toula limnaios has headed her own company, which bears her name. and with her small, but excellent, international ensemble, she brings contemporary dance onto the stage – in berlin, where the ensemble is based and across the world.

those, who have the privilege of seeing the cie. toula limnaios dance, experience a celebration of emotion. the intensity of the movements and the dancers' feelings enthrall the viewer. the audience senses the physicality, becomes part of the dance. over and over again, in every single performance. «
(zdf aspekte, stefanie heidbrink)

»toula limnaios is known to reframe classical works of art and literature into sensational dance pieces with a strong focus on human connections. in ›tempus fugit‹, from intricate floor-work to flying across the stage, the agile bodies of the dancers were well-adapted to limnaios' highly charged movement vocabulary. «
